Hugh's first home was a mobile
— in east Point while Bill attended school in Atlanta—summer quarter

Around 6 weeks of age

Hugh preferred sitting propped up like this. He was very alert — to everything going on around him.

A day or two before Bill's graduation from Auburn. Hugh carried around this picture, loving it, for hours as he knew that cap and gown represented something great. I did!

The Auburn graduation in Aug., 1951 was held in the afternoon at the Hare Stadium at Auburn. We sat on a front row. During the ceremony, a dog ran out on the football field. Hugh sprang up and went chasing it. That offered some amusement to the crowd.
